In this seminar, practitioners experienced in personal bankruptcy law and practice will review the basic elements of the personal bankruptcy process, for the benefit of corporate insolvency lawyers who are occasionally consulted about personal bankruptcy matters, as well as experienced trustees coming to grips with the recent legislative amendments.

The topics covered will include:

- Things to consider, as debtor and creditor, when contemplating a personal bankruptcy;
- The personal bankruptcy critical path: what has to be paid/filed/served, when, by whom, to/with whom;
- Dealings with an undischarged bankrupt;
- Surplus income payments;
- The discharge process; and
- Dealing with obligations that are not subject to discharge.
